

DEBORAH D. LAMBERT, CPA, CPCU

EXPERIENCE: FOUNDING PARTNER – JOHNSON LAMBERT & CO. – (1986 - Present)

Founding partner of Johnson Lambert & Co. Nationally recognized leader in alternative risk transfer movement. Responsible for insurance industry and financial services practice of firm. Serves as client service executive for audit, tax and consulting services to financial institutions and non-profits. Financial institution clients include captive insurance companies, risk retention groups, commercial life and property-casualty insurance companies, and self-insurance trusts. Responsible for Johnson Lambert & Co.'s quality control system. Frequent speaker and author on audit, assurance and insurance industry issues.

AUDITING STANDARDS BOARD – (1992-1996, 1998 - 2000)
CHAIR – (1998 - 2000)

The Auditing Standards Board has the responsibility for developing the auditing and attestation standards followed by certified public accountants in the United States. Previously served as chair. Served on a variety of related task forces and committees of the AICPA including Audit Issues Task Force, Insurance Companies Committee and Assurance Services Executive Committee.

SENIOR MANAGER – ERNST & WHINNEY – (1978 - 1986)

Provided audit, tax and consulting services to a variety of clients including mutual funds (including over 50 portfolios), broker-dealers, banks and property-casualty insurers. Member of the specially designated and trained computer audit group.